COMMANDER ROSS' STABLE

Formidable Aggregation of Stars Will Carry His Colors.

List Includes Cudgel, Billy Kelly, War Pennant, Motor Cop and Others.

NEW YORK, December 31.—Just to give owners of horses who intend to race next year an idea of the contention they will have from one stable, a list of the most prominent horses in the string of Commander J. K. L. Ross is appended: Cudgel, Billy Kelly, Milkmaid, Dramaturge, War Pennant, Sir Barton, Monomoy, Foreground, Damrosch, Priscilla Mullens, Dottie Vandiver, Canso, Boniface, Motor Cop and War Marvel. These constitute about the cream of the establishment and, when looked over as a whole, will loom up powerfully as applicants for turf honors in 1919.

That Cudgel is the headliner in the handicap division is almost assured now that John Sanford's stallion George Smith has been retired. The nearest opponents in the handicap division to Cudgel are Omar Khayyam, Westy Hogan, Sunny Slope, War Cloud and Roamer, and most of these he has beaten decisively some time or other in the past. Hence there is little question that Cudgel will concede weight to them when they are put to the acid test of the official handicapper, Mr. W. S. Vosburgh. This does not mean that Cudgel is going to win every handicap on the racing menu, but he is surely the horse that will have to be reckoned with in all events in which he starts.

Should Omar Khayyam return to his form of two years ago, then he will have something to say before handicaps and stakes are handed to Cudgel. It is the belief of Sandy McNaughton, the trainer of Omar Khayyam, that his charge will "come back," as he claims to have located the cause of his failing form this year. This he intends to remove, if possible, ere the year of 1919 is far advanced. As a three-year-old Omar Khayyam was considered superior to Cudgel by the majority, but this was never proved in contest. That Cudgel holds Westy Hogan safely was demonstrated at Saratoga, when he beat him in the Schenectady Handicap giving him six pounds. On these deductions Cudgel has but Omar Khayyam to fear in the handicap division and there is the attaching proviso to Omar Khayyam—"if he comes back."

Commander Ross' three-year-olds are the aces in the stable. Headed by Billy Kelly, this star is followed by War Pennant, Sir Barton and Milkmaid. The latter is a filly that showed to be far better than the average last autumn and one that will surely go a long route. Her victory over the speedy Pen Rose is convincing evidence she is a good filly. There is every promise of Milkmaid being the star of the three-year-olds of the feminine sex. She went into winter quarters in good condition, while other youngsters like Elfin Queen, Terentia and Pen Rose have been shelved at one time or another for cause. Should Elfin Queen return to her early form of this year, then the chances are that Milkmaid will have to show something better than she has shown to cope with her worthy antagonist from the stable of H. K. Knapp.

BILLY KELLY AND WAR PENNANT BEST.

Going back to the colts and geldings in the three-year-old class, Billy Kelly and War Pennant, unquestionably the two best in the Ross string, will have as opposition in the stakes for that class such horses as Eternal, Dunboyne and possibly, but not probable, one or two others. With two such masters as Billy Kelly and War Pennant to draw from, both of which have indicated to be long route horses, Commander Ross holds a strong hand in the three-year-old division. He also may have a strong addition in Sir Barton, which Mr. Bedwell claimed prior to Sir Barton's running second in the Futurity had outworked Billy Kelly. Sir Barton's being beaten by Dunboyne with an advantage in weight of ten pounds would indicate Dunboyne's being a most formidable opponent to Billy Kelly, if not better. But it is racing that is the true test and not work.

There is one more horse in the stable of stars to carry the colors of Commander Ross—that is, Motor Cop. It is generally conceded that Motor Cop is more of a sprinter than a long-distance horse, but performances show that he can at least go a mile in good company, though his victories at a mile were over horses confined to the three-year-old division. He was beaten by Sunny Slope in the Jerome Handicap at Belmont, and won the Saranac at Saratoga, in which he beat The Porter, the star of the McLean stable. His effort in the Withers in the spring of the year was probably his best performance, when he beat Johrea, Sun Briar and War Cloud, but there were excuses for all three of these in the Withers of one sort or another, as all three subsequently proved their races in the Withers were not their true form. While Motor Cop may develop into a really good horse under the tutelage of such an expert as Guy Bedwell, there is a wide gap for him to close up before he can be classed with Cudgel, Johren, Sunny Slope, War Cloud and, possibly, one or two others. Yet he will have to be considered well up in the handicap division, especially in sprint races.

That Commander Ross went into winter quarters with the strongest stable of the year is not only conceded, but records prove such to be the case. Should he have the good luck to bring the same band out in the spring as good and possibly better than they retired, the Ross stable looms up decidedly the dominant factor in all stakes and important races for the year 1919.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Capt. T. J. Clay is said to have the most highly prized youngster in Kentucky, a colt by Short Grass—Ellangowan.

Of the twenty-six mares mated with Short Grass last season, twenty-five are due to produce foals during the early part of the year.

The first of the get of Short Grass, Emil Herz' grand English-bred horse, is attracting much favorable comment on the part of Kentucky breeders.

Changing the finishing line at the Fair Grounds has made it necessary to reduce all races programmed at three-quarters of a mile to five and a half furlongs.

NORTH AMERICAN RECORDS IN FLAT RACING AT ALL DISTANCES AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR

Several successful assaults upon existing time records lent interest to the racing of 1918. The most sensational was evergreen Roamer's race against the mile record established by Salvator at Monmouth Park, August 28, 1890, when he ran the distance in 1:35½ over a straight course. Roamer's race took place at Saratoga, August 21. Carrying the same weight Salvator did—110 pounds—he ran the eighth in 12⅕, quarter in 23⅘, three-eighths in 34⅘, half mile in 46, five-eighths in 58, three-quarters in 1:10⅕, seven-eighths in 1:22⅘ and in triumph finished the mile in 1:34⅘. This remarkable and greatly applauded feat had been preceded earlier in the Saratoga meeting by the establishment of a new American record at a mile in a regular race when, on August 6, in winning the Delaware Handicap, Sun Briar carried 113 pounds and ran the distance in 1:36⅕. Another noble display of speed was given at Saratoga, August 16, when Cudgel took up the steadying impost of 131 pounds and covered the mile and three-sixteenths of the Schenectady Handicap in the new American record time of 1:56. At Douglas Park, May 29, Pif Jr. established a new American record at a mile and seventy yards when he ran the distance in 1:41⅘, carrying 120 pounds. At Belmont Park, September 12, the fleet filly Pen Rose made a new record at five-eighths of a mile straight when she ran the distance in 55⅘ with 110 pounds up. Thus four new records was the year's total, but at Havana, February 15, Senator James, 103 pounds, was credited with running one mile and twenty yards in 1:39, equaling the record made by Froglegs at Churchill Downs in 1913. The existing records at all distances are already so fast that excelling any of them is a matter of extreme difficulty, so that when a new one is made it represents a display of speed of the highest order. The American track records in flat racing, revised to date, are now as follows:

SARATOGA TRACK IN THE WINTER TIME

Summer Mecca of the American Turf Now Clad in White—Only Beverwyck Stable Quartered There.

NEW YORK, N. Y., December 31.—W. S. Price, who formerly trained and raced a stable of his own over the different tracks of this country, has just returned from a visit to Saratoga, the Mecca of the American turf during the month of August each year. The track over which Roamer shattered Salvator's long-standing record of a mile against time and where other sensational fast performances were recorded last summer is now carpeted in white, with not even a hoof print visible to indicate the presence of His Majesty' King Thoroughbred.

"And it is a great place for man or beast," declared Mr. Price. "I would not go so far as to say I would pick Saratoga as an ideal place to winter a string of horses, but still Billy Myer, who has done such wonders in remaking the course, is going to make a play for horsemen to winter there.

"At present there is just one string of horses wintering at Saratoga, and you can bet that while I was loafing about the sleepy village during the past three weeks that I visited the stable where they were quartered. You simply can't get away from it. Saratoga is a fine place to take a rest during the winter, for snow covers everything and there are no trucks to cut up the going. The natives all use sleighs and sleds. Out at Oklahoma, Frank Nolan, a resident of Saratoga and owner of the Beverwyck Stable, has a dozen thoroughbreds quartered under the care of trainer George Zeigler. Zeigler says the horses are doing well there in the snow, and that the ones who have had trouble with their feet or legs are being benefited. There has been snow on the ground ever since the night I arrived there, three weeks ago.

"The star of the whole Nolan outfit is old Sir John Johnson. It was a pleasure to have a look at the old horse, and believe me, he is a wise old bird. Actually I could see that he knew he was back on his old stamping grounds. He seemed to think that he was being brought back to the races, after his long rest in the stud. He is now thirteen years old, but acted like a regular young thoroughbred in training when he got a chance to get out in the open and show himself. Trainer Zeigler told me that he had picked up much in weight and general appearance since being brought on from Kentucky. When he got to Saratoga he was thinned down, but since he has been there he has put on many pounds and is a fine looking animal.

"In case Mr. Nolan does not sell Sir John Johnson, Zeigler said that it was the intention of the owner to send him to Virginia to do stud duty during the coming season. He is a horse that never has had much of a chance as a sire, but there was one colt that was by this old horse which raced well during the present year, and that was Be Frank of the Calumet Stable. Zeigler expects to take Old Koenig and the others of the racing string away from Saratoga in February to get them ready for the spring racing. Mr. Nolan has not yet decided whether he will send the string to Hot Springs or to Kentucky, or to one of the Maryland tracks for their race training."

CLOSE FINISHES AT ORIENTAL PARK

Drying-Out Track Reflected in Yesterday's Racing —Trainer Bondy Is Disciplined.

HAVANA, Cuba, December 31.—Today's races at Oriental Park were run over a drying-out track. The going improved steadily and tomorrow's footing should be fairly good. Today's program was made up of a series of selling races at sprinting distances and close finishes came with a majority of the races. Iron Boy beat Venetian Boy a scant length in the opener, while Dixie Highway, after a hard drive, beat Flying Dart a half length in the second race and Whispering Hope had a margin of a head over Driffield in the third.

In the fifth Pierrot beat El Plandit a length after the pair had furnished an interesting duel throughout the homestretch.

H. E. Leigh disposed of Driffield at private sale to Mrs. A. C. Niehaus and High Olympus to Stuart Polk.

As a result of the inconsistent racing of Enver Bey, H. Bondy has been relieved as trainer of the horses racing in the name of the Columbia Stable and the El Moro Stable and H. W. Boyer, while Richard Stickney succeeds him.

The Grader, favorite in the fourth race, appeared to disadvantage in the heavy going and quit badly, while Peaceful Star, the extreme outsider, led all the way by a safe margin.

Egmont found no opposition worthy of the name in the closing race and, after racing into a big lead early, easily maintained it to the end.

SETS PRICE OF $20,000 FOR BE FRANK

Cornelius M. Garrison, owner of the Calumet Stable, who, it is said, declined an offer of $15,000 for his crack gelding Be Frank, has set a price of $20,000 on that good son of Sir John Johnson, but is not altogether desirous of selling him.

FAIR GROUNDS OPENS TODAY

New Grandstand Near Completion and Everything in Readiness.

Attractive Inaugural Program Expected to Bring Out a Record-Breaking Attendance.

NEW ORLEANS, La., December 31.—The days of miracles are still with us, at least the seemingly impossible has been accomplished. From the ashes of the grandstand and other buildings at the Fair Grounds destroyed by fire last Saturday morning have emerged a new stand and betting pavilion as if by magic. The enterprising Business Men's Racing Association, backed by the New Louisiana Jockey Club, had started the work of rebuilding before the ashes of the burned buildings had grown cold. Day and night the work has gone on without interruption, until now it is safe to assert that their pluck and perseverance will be rewarded, and the people of New Orleans and the tourists will be agreeably surprised when the gates of the famous and popular Fair Grounds are thrown open to the public tomorrow.

As far as the racing is concerned, the consensus of opinion is that the greatest season of winter sport in the Crescent City will be inaugurated with the running of the attractive New Year's day program. More and higher class horses are available for racing this winter than ever before, and the majority of them are in prime condition.

A feature of this meeting which was lacking last year will be the juvenile racing. The rescinding of the rule prohibiting the racing of two-year-olds before the 1st of April is responsible for the resumption of the "baby" race, attractive to horsemen and public alike. Many stars in the embryo are reported housed in the different stables, and the general run of the youngsters here are considered of more than ordinary promise.

The New Year's Handicap is the feature of the opening day card and promises to be a contest well worth seeing. All that is necessary to insure a banner attendance is clear, pleasant weather, and that the weather man has forecast.

Late arrivals from New York include David Gideon and many other well-known racing people conspicuous on eastern tracks.

Nineteen horses consigned to the Waldeck Stable have reached the Fair Grounds from Lexington in good condition. The string embraced Pas de Chance, Brookland, Mesalliance and fifteen yearlings. Among the latter are a filly and a colt by Luke McLuke.

Jimmy Johnson has selected names for his pair of coming two-year-olds. A bay colt by Marajax—Honeymoon has been named Lieutenant Seas, while the name of Hello Pardner has been chosen for a bay colt by Marajax—Ma We Dear.

The stewards ordered the withdrawal of J. S. Ownbey's Democracy from the first race yesterday when that gelding failed to reach the track from the Fair Grounds within the regulation time.

PROPOSED SALE OF KENTUCKY TRACKS

The Absorbing Topic in Turf Circles—Doubt Deal Will Be Consummated.

"The absorbing topic of conversation in turf circles the last week has been the proposed sale of the Latonia and Douglas Park race tracks to Kentucky interests," says a Kentucky turf writer. Continuing, he says: "Many well-informed men are of the opinion that the breeders and horsemen who are back of the new syndicate, or rather, who are the syndicate, will come across and complete the deal, while there is an equal number who do not believe that the sum, said to $850,000, for the two plants can be raised.

"The argument of the latter runs something like this: They contend that it would be a hard matter to induce any big capital to invest in an enterprise as precarious as a race track and have their dividends limited to ten per cent. They say that the ten-per-cent proposition is all right if the race tracks were as stable as United States Steel and several other stocks listed on the New York Exchange which net more than ten per cent right now. But a race track is a sporting proposition, which is subject to the mercies and whims of every legislature. That body can wipe it out at any time it sees fit.

"Therefore, the argument is that big capital will hesitate about going in on such a proposition. Oil stocks and copper mine securities pay big dividends some times. The risk is so great that it is necessary that the capital be able to pay itself out in a few years. Big theatrical promoters will not invest in a theatrical proposition unless they can see at least twenty per cent, for they claim their original capital must be earned in five years or else the proposition is a poor one. If such is the case with theatricals, which are not subject to anti-legislation, how about race tracks? is the query of those who do not believe the necessary capital can be raised.

"On the other hand, those who believe the deal will go through declare that the men who are going to put up the bulk of the money in the new enterprise are not doing so through any expectancy of obtaining big dividends, but solely to see the tracks owned by home talent, believing that if such a condition exists there will be far less chance of any anti-racing legislation. The question has been frequently asked 'If Latonia is such a good proposition why are the present owners so willing to part with it?' The present owners are sincere in their desire to sell. There is no question about that, for they have asked a certain sum, and if that amount is produced they are willing to retire.

"Latonia now is at the zenith of its glory. It was made so by high-class management. If the track changes hands the same class of management must be exhibited in the newcomers or it is going back. It is not so many years ago that the gate receipts one day at Latonia were $180. Poor management had put it so deep in the mire that the outlook was hopeless. But by dint of hard work and a liberal policy Latonia today takes its hat off to no race course in America, and nine-tenths of its success is due to the policy of the present management.

"In the first announcement of the pending deal there was a decided hint that economies were to be practiced; that certain salaries and offices were to be either cut or abolished. No race track which employed cheap officials was ever successful. That plan of running a race track has been tried and found wanting. The horsemen must not expect every dollar which is taken in to go to them. A liberal policy with others, as well as the horsemen, is needed to make the enterprise a successful one."
